

Cooperation outside the EU

The EJM website has a dedicated section providing information regarding non-EU countries and judicial networks.

The section includes contact details for EJM Contact Points in non-EU countries and members of judicial networks around the world. By contacting the EJM Contact Points in their Member State, practitioners can reach judicial authorities worldwide.

About the EJM website:

- ▶ Created in 2000
- ▶ Home base for EJM Contact Points with restricted sections dedicated to the Contact Points
- ▶ Managed by the EJM Secretariat and EJM tools correspondents
- ▶ Translated into official EU languages (ongoing)
- ▶ Legal basis: Council Decision 2008/976/JHA of 16 December 2008 on the European Judicial Network (the “EJM Decision”)

European Judicial Network (EJM) website

EN

EJM Secretariat

Johan de Wittlaan 9 • 2517 JR The Hague • The Netherlands
Fax: +31 (0) 70 412 5570 • E-mail: ejm@eurojust.europa.eu

www.ejm-crimjust.europa.eu

A comprehensive online platform with practical electronic tools and relevant information for facilitating cooperation between authorities that deal with international judicial cooperation in criminal matters.

www.ejm-crimjust.europa.eu

Electronic tools available on the EJM website:

Atlas

to find a competent authority for executing requests for judicial cooperation together with contact details

Compendium

to draft and send requests – available in all official EU languages!

- Mutual legal assistance (MLA) model request
- European Investigation Order (EIO)
- Freezing order
- Confiscation order
- Other types of EU mutual recognition instruments

Fiches Belges

to check whether a judicial measure is applicable in another country, as well as information about which language to use and information to be included

Judicial Library

to find information about EU legal instruments and sourced for notifications, forms, reports, handbooks etc.

List of Contact Points

to find contact details for EJM Contact Points (password protected)

With an average of 2.5 million views per year, the EJM website remains a crucial source of essential information for practitioners. One of the key tasks of the EJM Secretariat is therefore to ensure the quality of the platform's content.

What else can you find on the EJM website?

- ▶ Dedicated sections on the EIO, the EAW and e-evidence
- ▶ Status of implementation of EU legal instruments in the Member States
- ▶ Info about national systems (EU Member States, associated countries and candidate countries)
- ▶ Partners of the EJM
- ▶ Events and news sections for an overview of upcoming EJM meetings and partner events, as well as the latest developments in the field of judicial cooperation in criminal matters

To find out more

- ▶ Consult the EJM Welcome Package
- ▶ Videos are available, such as a video introducing the EJM website and instruction videos on different tools

